'...if one thing is for sure, Dutch clubbers are fed up with all these rules and restrictions.'

(Amsterdam, NL) - The M.S. Stubnitz, an old coal transportation ship from 1964, and a perfect/notorious party location is about to drown in Dutch regulation. Every year this ship returns to the NDSM-wharf in Amsterdam to have a series of outrageous parties. But it seems like this unique location is not welcome any longer here in Amsterdam.

Due to regulations, laws and a lot of bureaucratic nonsense, this world wide known party ship is losing money, spirit and pride. They have been in Amsterdam over two weeks now, and they still didn't get permission to moor on the NDSM-wharf. This means canceled parties, no income and maybe no further future for the M.S. Stubnitz in Amsterdam.

But if one thing is for sure, Dutch clubbers are fed up with all these rules and restrictions. So that's why multiple organizations team up to help the Stubnitz while it's sinking in despair. The Melkweg, Electronation, Errorkrew, Evotions, Mr. Stubnitz, Namasté, NHC, Power vs. Power, Senior Productions, Strength of Unity, Switch Music Events, TK07, Underground Productions, Vault and many more, will try to give M.S. Stubnitz some extra life-jackets to keep the ship floating in Dutch waters. Together they are organizing a benefit night in the Melkweg on Thursday 24 September with multiple DJs who all have a loving relationship with the M.S. Stubnitz. And they don't want to see Amsterdam sink any lower in their regulation fit.

Many artist are supporting this event, and want to contribute to the existence of the M.S. Stubnitz. Kabale und Liebe & David Labelij, Daniel Sanchez, Terry Toner & Warren Fellow, Michael "Ille Bitch" van L., Dennis Ruyer, Presetone (aka Victor Coral & ONNO), Rauwkost (live), Thomas Martojo & Casper Tielrooij, Aron Friedman, Jorn Liefdeshuis, Bert de Rooij & Dollkraut and Sandrien will all be there to support. Some more DJs are to be announced later on.

Will we soon say our last goodbyes to M.S. Stubnitz? Or will we stand strong and defeat the bureaucracy?
